THE MANCHESTER MARKET.

MANCHESTER, May 12.—The predominant feature of last week was the decline in cotton, the effect of which was to hamper the cloth sellers. Notwithstanding a later improvement, most of the departments report unsatisfactory business, although there is a fair inquiry. The lack of a workable demand is disappointing. The feeling prevails that a fair business probably would be transacted at the present level of values should a greater stability develop.

There was a considerable number of offers for fabrics from India, but the results were disappointing. Options were given to the China trade on some sales of the better grades of shirtings at low rates. Yarns were quiet.

The fall in cotton caused buyers to hesitate, and they only placed such orders as were necessary for early delivery.

Bank of Spain's Report.

MADRID, May 12.—The report of the Bank of Spain for the week ended yesterday shows the following: Gold in hand, no change; silver in hand, decrease, 374,000 pesetas; notes in circulation, increase, 4,658,000 pesetas.

OUR LONDON CABLE

WALL STREET INFLUENCE

Wild Gambling in Glasgow—Weakening of Prices but Strengthening of Discount Rate in London—Permanent Investors in Americans Chiefly Affected.

Cable Correspondence THE NEW YORK TIMES. Copyright, 1901.

LONDON, May 12.—Your Wall Street excitement has found little echo here. Noisy crowds shouted in the Stock Exchange all day, and in the Street for an hour or two in the evening, but the general market remained calm, and only in Glasgow did anything approaching the excitement of panic occur. Glasgow, however, was one of the wildest gambling corners in the kingdom.

We, I am assured, have not been deeply implicated in the most recent phase of your stock speculation. The short interest here has never been large, and, as was explained last week, the pace has recently been much too fast for any but the most irresponsible class of operators. On the balance the realizations by genuine stockholders have much exceeded the average, and recent steamers have carried quite unusual values of your securities home. Our market, therefore, stands to receive money from yours, and, being in that position, serious trouble is not looked for. A few curbstone operators were expected to throw up the sponge, and I heard yesterday that one biggish inside firm was in difficulties and may fail. Otherwise the panic has been slaked before striking us. Yet its occurrence has done much to influence business in all departments of our Stock Exchange, and general business and weakening prices went on all through the week, consols dipping below 94, and the new stock at one time sinking to a small discount.

Your market is accused of selling. In the money market the effect of the New York disturbance has been noticeable in a strengthening of the discount rate. Early last week Eastern banks were doing their utmost to work the rate on their paper down to 3⅝ per cent., and by Friday they were glad to sell at 3⅝ per cent., while the general class of discounters had to pay 3¾ per cent.

This hardening was not due to dear short credits; these have never been above 3½ per cent. for time loans, and the more general rate has been 3 to 3¼ per cent. Call money, indeed, sometimes dipped below 3 per cent. Nor has there been any pressure of bills coming forward for discount.

The market hardened under two influences. First, in preparation for the sale of £2,500,000 Treasury bill renewals on Friday, and secondly, because your disturbance frightened the credit dealers regarding the possibilities of this week's Stock Exchange settlement.

Nothing particular is going to happen over our Stock Exchange payments, as far as I can judge. It is not, however, improbable that next week's installment on the new consols may force the borrowers back upon the Bank of England for perhaps several millions. The actual amount of this installment is under £4,000,000, and probably the Bank already holds half of it in the shape of excess application money retained against call. But sellings in old stock were extensive for some time before new was issued, and many of the sellers intend to complete their contracts by delivering the new stock at the June settlement. This compels them to pay up in full next Friday, and the scramble after accommodation then will be intense or moderate, according to the extent of these payments.

The market is unable to forecast what it may be called upon to furnish in the way of credit; therefore rates are kept up, and the Exchequer yesterday had to pay nearly 3¾ per cent. for its renewed six months' bills.

Stock Exchange business was becoming more extensive until your Wall Street eruption came to frighten people off, but it was chiefly in investment directions, and now stagnation again rules.

Paris desires to unload here in preparation for the new Russian loan, and finds us unresponsive. A. J. W.

ON THE LONDON EXCHANGE.

LONDON, May 12.—During the last week the attention of the Stock Exchange has been so absorbed in Americans that little has been done on other markets to which notice can be called. When the storm of excitement was tremendous it was soon seen, however, that the worst was over. Good buying followed, whereupon the feeling was much improved. The close in Americans was quiet and fairly firm, but below the level of New York. There still exists some uneasiness regarding the settlement, especially of Northern Pacific, in spite of the fact that this stock closed 35 points up, at 170½, which is 70 above the last quotation.

The recording of the quotation fluctuations during the last week is practically useless, as these have been so abnormal that they furnish little valuable indication of conditions. Most Americans show an improvement, but closed under the best prices of the week. Union Pacifics recovered 15, New York Centrals recovered 6½, Wabash debentures 5½, Wabash preferred 5, Southern Pacifics 4½, Baltimore and Ohio and Illinois Central recovered 4 points, Denver and Rio Grande 3, Erie preferred 2¾, Louisville and Nashville, Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé, and Chesapeake and Ohio recovered 2 points, and the others fractionally.

Foreign securities were cheerful and firm. Coppers have been depressed, but were higher on balance. Early this week Kafirs showed a good tendency on the reopening of some of the mines, and the Paris buying strengthened the market. Later, values receded in sympathy with general dullness, but on Saturday they somewhat improved, Rands rising 3-16ths to 42⅝, and others fractionally.
